AGRI-GROWTH COUNCIL TO HOST LEGISLATIVE WRAP UP

Two expert panels will review the 2010 legislative session and preview upcoming elections at the Minnesota Agri-Growth Council Legislative Wrap Up on June 9.

WHAT:

Find out what legislation passed and what didn't, as well as what to expect for the 2011 session. Whether it's agriculture, the budget, environment or taxes – everything is fair game for discussion at the Minnesota Agri-Growth Council Legislative Wrap Up on June 9, at the Crowne Plaza Hotel St. Paul – Riverfront.

WHO:

More than 50 food and agricultural industry stakeholders will attend the Legislative Wrap-Up, which features two impressive expert panels that will review the 2010 Legislative Session. Find out what legislation passed and what didn't, as well as what to expect for the 2011 session.

We've organized this year's program into two parts, with some special panelists:

Legislative Overview (12:30 - 1:05)

- Representative Al Juhnke (DFL-Willmar), Chair, House Agriculture Finance Committee
- Mike Robertson, Minnesota Chamber of Commerce Lobbyist
- Senator Julie Rosen (R-Fairmont)

Political Preview (1:05 - 1:45)

- Sarah Janecek, Politics in Minnesota
- Doug Grow, MinnPost.com

WHEN: Wednesday, June 9, 11:30 a.m. – 1:45 p.m.
